ADDRESSES OF PRESIDENT DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

The text to most of the public messages and statements of the President of the United States that were released by the White House during the Eisenhower Administration, January 20, 1953 through January 20, 1961, may be found in the eight volumes, Public Papers of the Presidents: Dwight D. Eisenhower 1953-61. The items in these volumes are presented in Chronological order, rather than being grouped in classes. Most needs for a classified arrangement are met by the subject index volume, The Cumulated Indexes to the Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States: Eisenhower.

In the following listing of public messages and statements of President Eisenhower available as sound recordings from the Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library, the number enclosed in parens, preceding the title, represents the identification given the message or statement as recorded in the List of Items of each volume. Written transcript not available for those titles preceded by an asterisk.

Remarks or addresses were delivered in Washington, D.C., unless otherwise indicated.
