

Clarence Mitchell tells me the ceremony will be restricted to a period of praying near the Lincoln Memorial from noon to 3:00 pm and that the people will be scattered then to go to their homes. He promises me that there will be no untoward incidents.

I will report later on this if there are further developments.