Certain ~~numbers of people~~ there have insisted upon defying the law and have sought to bring it into disrepute. The orders of the court have thus been frustrated.

The very basis of our individual rights and freedoms rests upon the certainty that the President and the Executive Branch of Government will support and insure the carrying out of the orders of the Federal Courts ~~with all the means~~ when necessary at the President's command.

The proper use of the powers of the Executive Branch to enforce the orders of a Federal Court ^{is} ~~are~~ limited to extraordinary and compelling circumstances. Manifestly, such an extreme situation has been created in Arkansas. This challenge must be met with such measures as will preserve to the people as a whole their lawfully-protected rights and legal processes in a climate permitting their free and fair exercise.
