

Prepared by: JH
Date: 11/17/97

HIGHTOWER

HIGHTOWER, JOHN M. (OH-75) 42 pgs. PRCQ(m)

Diplomatic correspondent, Associated Press.

DESCRIPTION: Career background as newsman; 1936--Nashville, TN; 1940--Navy Department; 1943--general assignment, State Department, foreign policy of the post-war period; direct conversation with Eisenhower twice; comments on changes after Secretary of State John FosterDulles; Eisenhower's attempt to reach out to the Communist world, to create personal relationships; the Geneva Summit in 1955; the "Open Skies" proposal; Krushchev's visit to the U.S.; comments on Communists' concept of other nations; Dulles' and Eisenhower's views of foreign policy; the role of journalists at press conferences; Indochina policy; comments on Eisenhower's decision-making and communication skills; comments on Dulles and his leadership; relations with Communist China, Israel, Egypt's [Gamal Abdel] Nasser, West Germany's [Konrad]Adenauer and Great Britain's [Anthony] Eden; Dulles and the press; Dulles' views on Asia; the beginning of U.S. commitments in Asia; major achievements of the Eisenhower Administration in foreign diplomacy; the McCarthy issue; comments on Dulles' press aides, Carl McCardle and Andrew Berding.

[Columbia University Oral History Project, interview by John Luter, January, 1968]