

Processed by: DAD
Date: 8/20/74

SCHINE

SCHINE, G. DAVID

(OH-205)

21 pages

PRCQ

Chief Consultant to the Investigations Subcommittee of the Senate Government Operations Committee, 1953.

Interview #1. How he became associated with Senator Joseph McCarthy's Investigations Subcommittee. Investigations of Schine's treatment as an army private at Fort Dix, and the origins of the Army-McCarthy Hearings. McCarthy's opinion of DDE. Schine's assessment of McCarthy as a person, and the impact of his activities. His opinion of the value of U.S. information programs, and the State Department's efficiency in running them. Comments on trip which he and Roy Cohn took to Europe in 1953 to study U.S. information centers. His impression of DDE's attitude towards McCarthy.

[Columbia Oral History Project Interview by Mary Jean Pew, 1971]